

KANSANS

ON WORKER FREEDOM

Kansas voters want lawmakers to ensure public employees have basic freedoms when choosing or leaving a union.

Should public employees in Kansas be allowed to END THEIR UNION MEMBERSHIP

and stop paying dues whenever they wish?

67%

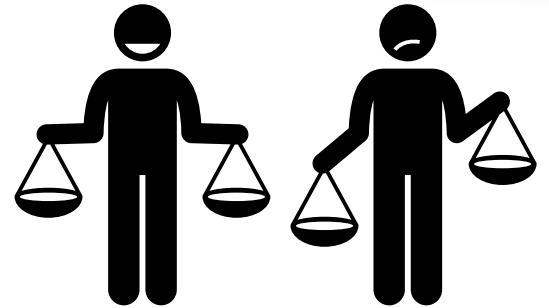

of Kansas voters said yes

While only 19% said no

SURVEYUSA INTERVIEWED 700 ADULTS FROM THE ENTIRE STATE OF KANSAS 12/10/19 THROUGH 12/14/19 EXCLUSIVELY FOR KANSAS POLICY INSTITUTE

HOW DO WE ENSURE THERE IS FAIRNESS AND ACCOUNTABILITY FOR KANSAS PUBLIC EMPLOYEES?

83% of voters across political parties said yes

5% said no

Should public employees in Kansas have the right to occasionally

VOTE

on which union represents them at work?

SURVEYUSA INTERVIEWED 700 ADULTS FROM THE ENTIRE STATE OF KANSAS 1/15/19 THROUGH 01/19/19 EXCLUSIVELY FOR KANSAS POLICY INSTITUTE

WHAT SHOULD LAWMAKERS DO?

kansaspolicy.org/iAmMark